DEDICATION

To one who has devoted the last ten years in the interest of Burnham High School, faithful as an instructor, earnest in promoting and supporting all activities for the good of our High School, and true to the ideals that go into the making of better character; to our class advisor during the past year, we, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-eight, do sincerely dedicate this volume of the Lance.

ELIZABETH J. PETERS

ELMER E. SIPE; Supervising Principal, Solid Geometry

Education: International Correspondence School; Keystone State Teachers College; Pennsylvania State College, Summer and Correspondence Courses.

Before coming to Burnham, Mr. Sipe taught in Decatur Township, Mifflin County, six years, and in Kutztown High School, Kutztown, Pa., Assistant Principal, one year. He was principal of the Auburn High School, Auburn, Pa., five years. The past ten years he has been Supervising Principal in the Burnham Public Schools. Under his careful guidance and instruction the schools of Burnham have made rapid advance in education.

The class sincerely thanks him for his interest in "The Lance," and the valuable work he has done in the way of art and design for the book this year.

ELIZABETH J. PETERS; Assistant Principal, French and Algebra

Education: Yeagertown High School; West Chester State Teachers College; Pennsylvania State College, Summer and Correspondence Courses, Bucknell University, Summer Course; Grove City College, Summer Course.

Miss Peters has taught in Burnham High School during the past ten years. She taught one year in Marcus Hook, Delaware County, before coming to Burnham. As faculty advisor of the Senior Class, Miss Peters has been a faithful and wise counselor and is worthy of the trust that has been placed in her.

KATHRYN DECKER; Commercial Subjects

Education: Lewistown High School; Lancaster Business College; Susquehanna University.

After finishing school, Miss Decker came to Burnham and has taught in the high school for two years. She has complete charge of the Commercial Department. Miss Decker is small, but mighty, and is a jolly and good-natured friend of all. Besides having charge of the Commercial Department, she is Secretary of the Freedom P. T. A. and cashier of the School Savings System.

MARY E. HOWE; History and Latin

Education: Lewistown High School; Juniata College.

Miss Howe comes from Maitland to Burnham High every morning in her little Ford runabout. This is her second year in Burnham High School. A true friend to all she is, always ready to help solve the many problems which one meets in high school. Miss Howe is also the faculty advisor of the Freshman Class.

Elma S. Benfer

John H. Harris

ARLA C. SMITH; Supervisor of Music

Education: Lewistown High School; Coombs Conservatory of Music; Sydney Conservatory of Music, Australia; West Chester State Teachers College, summer course; New York University, summer course.

Miss Smith has been teaching music in the Burnham Public Schools the past five years. During that time she has directed many entertainments and operettas, in the grades and high school which have all been successful. In addition to her school music, Miss Smith gives private lesson, both vocal and instrumental.

ERNEST L. KENNEDY; Science and Algebra

Education: Marysville High School; Shippensburg State Teachers College.

Mr. Kennedy came to us this year from New Florence, Pa., having taught in the high school there two years. He is always willing to help in every enterprise the school undertakes. He has given advice which will be of use to his pupils. Mr. Kennedy was interested in athletics, being the faculty manager of the Basketball team. He also acted as faculty advisor of the Sophomore Class.

JOHN H. HARRIS; English, Plane Geometry, Coach of Athletics

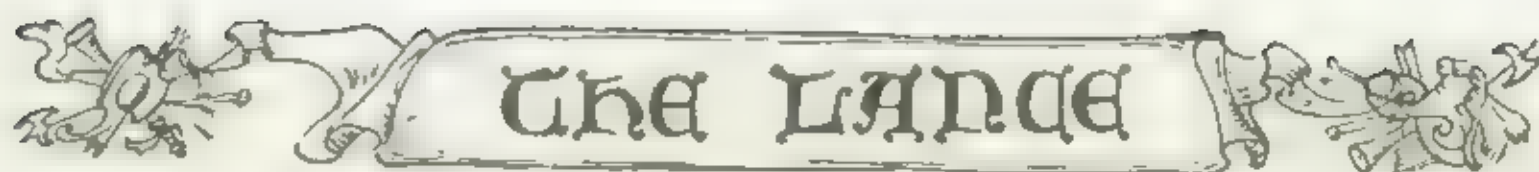

Education: Mount Union High School; Shippensburg State Teachers College.

Mr. Harris taught in the Junior High School in Yeagertown one year before coming to Burnham. He has been in Burnham High School one year. During that time he has given his best to the school, both in athletics and in the class room. Mr. Harris is faculty advisor of the Junior Class.

ELMA S. BENFER; Orchestra

Education: Lewistown High School; Institute of Musical Art, New York City; Pennsylvania State College, summer course; private tutors.

Last year a string ensemble was organized in the Burnham Schools under the leadership of Miss Benfer. This ensemble has now been enlarged into an orchestra. Miss Benfer acts as a substitute teacher in our schools. She was formerly a teacher in the second grade.

HARRY PULLY

"Pully"

Class President; Editor "Beehive" Staff; Lyceum Literary Society; Captain Varsity Basketball Team; President Athletic Association; Silver Medal Mifflin County Track Meet '27; Class Play; Senior Play '28.

Behold! our honorable class president. "Pully" has proved himself worthy of having that name many times. He is Captain of our famous basketball team and will surely be missed next year in B. H. S. when it comes to athletics—in other things as well. Besides, he is our staff artist, and has shown his artistic ability in this book in a very splendid way.

Good luck to you, Harry.

THE SENIOR CLASS

S stands for Success of the Senior Class,
 E for the Effort of each lad and lass
 N stands for Nugget of golden thought,
 I the Ideals which we've always sought.
 O is for Originality, in this annual you see,
 R stands for Right which we all wish to be.

C is for Courage, all Seniors can show,
 L stands for Loyalty, a fine trait you know.
 A is Ambition, with that we'll succeed.
 S stands for Sterling, we are indeed,
 S also for Steadfastness in act and creed.

RUTH BAY

"Bay"

President Lyceum Literary Society; Class Secretary; Vice-President French Club; Orchestra; Class Play; Red Coat Band.

Let us introduce you to our valedictorian, "Ruthie" Bay. Ruth is small in stature, but the saying "All good goods are done up in small packages" is very true in this case. Good-natured, pleasant, smiling, and an all-round good sport, that's Ruthie. Her one ambition is to be a nurse. We know she will be successful in anything she tries.

Good luck to you, "Ruthie," from all your classmates.

MARY BEALE

"Beale"

Athenaeum Literary Society; French Club; Class Play.

Mary has been in our class only one year, but she has proved herself worthy of being a member of the class of '28. She is ready to do her part and is a lover of good times and all school sports.

"Beale" came from Port Royal High. She still has a great interest there which is shown by the number of letters she writes each week. Mary expects to go to college, where she hopes to be instructed in the art of instructing others.

Best wishes, Mary.

ETHEL CRIFE

"Etta"

Secretary Athenaeum Literary Society; French Club; Art Exhibit; Class Play.

And this is our salutatorian. Ethel's one aim in high school has been to get over ninety in all her studies. She gets her lessons very easily, and then spends much of her time writing letters to California. Ethel expects to teach school some day. Her wonderful ability to impart knowledge should make her successful.

Best wishes to you, Ethel.

THE LANCE

EMMA WEISER

"Emmy"

Athenaeum Literary Society; French Club; Art Exhibit; Class Play, Madison County Track Meet.

"Emmy" came to Burnham this year from Hopewell. During the year with us her cheery smile and care-free nature have won for her many friends. She is a good student, a good sport, a loyal classmate and a friend.

"Emmy's" chief interest is in getting her lessons. She gets along splendidly with her science teacher (?). The class of '28 is proud to own this lass and wishes her success in her college work.

RALPH SHAWVER

"Dutch"

Athenaeum Literary Society; "Beehive" Staff; Varsity Basketball; Class Play; Vice-President; Class Track.

"Dutch" is our famous basketball star. He has taken an active part in all athletic activities ever since he has been in high school. Without him our team would have had small chances for victory.

"Dutch" is always good-natured, but has found little need for the opposite sex.

We know he will succeed after he leaves Burnham High. Good-bye and good luck, "Dutch."

BERYL NORTH

"Baryl"

Athenaeum Literary Society; French Club; Red Coat Band; Orchestra; Class Play.

Just a little girl in size, but she talks, talks, talks from morning until night. Beryl is one of the most popular girls in our class, especially with the opposite sex.

You have the best wishes of the class, Beryl.

ARTHUR YEAGER

"Art"

Lyceum Literary Society; Student Manager Basketball; Class Play.

Who is this quiet looking gentleman? Don't be frightened. It's only Art. He is very shy and any time you happen to glance toward him, his head is bent over a book—either chemistry or geometry. Art finds great pleasure in performing chemistry experiments. We are sure he will be successful along this line of work.

Good luck to you, Art.

ELIZABET HGRAHAM

"Betty"

Athenaeum Literary Society; French Club; "Beehive" Staff; Class Play.

Jovial and light-hearted are two good adjectives to use in describing our "Betty." If she breezes in when you have the "blues" they are sure to disappear. She is energetic in anything she attempts to do and because of this she always succeeds.

Betty's career is not yet planned, but we wish her success in whatever she does.

Best wishes, Betty.

GEORGE NEARHOOF

"Boner"

Athenaeum Literary Society; Advertising Manager, the "Lance"; Class Play; Track.

Hail! to our famous business man. "Boner" has shown his ability along these lines in getting ads for this book. He is ever willing to help a fellow in distress and do just a little more than his share. (Working freshman algebra problems).

We expect to see George as manager of Weis Pure Food Store before long.

Best of luck from your classmates, George.

THE LANCE

LENA CROUSE

"Crouse"

Lyceum Literary Society; Class Treasurer; Red Coat Band; Royal Typewriting Certificate; Remington Certificate; Underwood Certificate; 20th Century Bookkeeping Certificate of Proficiency; Class Play.

Let us introduce you to one of the best natured girls of the class. Lena's hobby is laughing. Her motto is "Laugh and grow fat." She has the honor of being the class treasurer.

"Crousie" is everybody's friend, but she has a terrible time with her "dates."

Good luck to you, Lena.

MARY HAVICE

"Corporal"

Lyceum Literary Society; "Beehive" Staff; Editor of the "Lance"; Red Coat Band; Secretary Athletic Association; Secretary Magazine Campaign '28; Underwood Typing Certificate; Remington Silver Pin; Royal Silver Pin; 20th Century Bookkeeping Certificate of Proficiency; Class Play.

This is our Editor-in-Chief. Mary, as the name indicates, is a merry Irish maiden. When you hear roars of laughing coming from the Commercial room, you may be sure that Mary has said another witty thing.

She will surely be a success as somebody's stenog (unless she turn to domestic science), because of her efficiency and sunny disposition.

DOROTHY WALKER

"Dot"

Athenaeum Literary Society; Business Manager the "Lance"; Red Coat Band; Business Manager Magazine Campaign '27; Secretary Magazine Campaign '28; Class Play; 20th Century Bookkeeping Certificate of Proficiency; Remington Typewriting Certificate.

Although this blue-eyed lass seems quiet to those who first see her, we assure you that she is one of the most "peppy" girls in our class. Dot is one the most popular girls in high school. She is interested in the Weis Pure Food Stores, but like all things, there's a reason.

We are sure Dot's success in high school will insure success for her in the outside world.

Best wishes, Dot.

Senior Class History

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF' is a well-known and oft quoted adage. Therefore, do not be surprised if our history happens to be in some respects much like a great many other class chronicles you have read. There is still enough difference to give us a personality of our own.

September First, four years ago, the class of 1928 assembled with the proper amount of freshman humility. Our hearts quaked with the pleasure of speaking to a senior, while the mere mention of Caesar and geometry sent our respect soaring to the loftiest heights. Of course, the spell has long since been broken, the trials and tribulations of these subjects combined with the problems of physics and other subjects enumerated in the Course of Study, have had their disillusioning effects.

In September we organized as a class and elected officers. We chose as our class colors, Rose and Steel and as our flower, the American Beaut. Rose. The motto we selected was "Labor, then Honor."

How well we remember the first basketball game, that with Port Royal in which our boys participated. Little did we care for each other's toes as we watched the ball vibrate from one end of the floor to the other. Only one who has passed through such an experience can realize the excitement attendant upon such an event.

THE LAND

In June we left school delighted, anticipating the vacation, and most of us looking forward to becoming Sophomores in the fall. The second week of school we had a weiner roast above Reedsville. It was a great success. Even the teachers remarked as to how much they had enjoyed the evening. Later on, in the year we held our first bake sale in front of the Riato Theatre, Lewistown. It was during our Sophomore year that two of our classmates were given a place on the Varsity basketball team. This year, too, the Juniata Valley Basketball League was organized and we won the championship, receiving as a reward a beautiful silver trophy.

Our Junior year was one of study and meditation, as the long honor rolls of that year will testify. The great problems of our lives, in the shape of physics experiments and thoughts of mighty essayists, employed most of our time. The one shadow over our bright days came during this year when one of our classmates, Mary Alice Abbott, was killed in an automobile accident. The first Mifflin County track meet was held in May of this year. Our class had a stand where we sold sandwiches and lemonade. Two of our boys won medals at the Meet. Our president won the silver medal for the best all-round athlete. The big social event of the year was the Junior-Senior prom at the Y. M. C. A. in compliance to the graduating class of 1927. They gladly admitted that we surpassed them in the excellence of our entertainment and that we did them honor as well as ourselves.

And now we have come to the portal leading out of life. This last year in our high school has been one of combined study and pleasure. We have grown somewhat beyond the grasp of the Junior year into the freedom and dignity that is becoming to Seniors. The first event of this year was Dot Walker's birthday party. Other parties were held during the year. Before the holidays we sold Christmas cards to add funds to our class treasury. In March we visited the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory in Huntingdon. The next month we visited the Standard Steel Works. Our class play, 'Tea Topper Tavern,' was given in the Y. M. C. A. in May. An educational trip to Harrisburg and a picnic brought the social life of our school days to a close. It was then time to prepare for Class Day and Commencement.

In Memoriam

Of one of our dear classmates who was called from our midst, October 13, 1926.

MARY ALICE ALBRIGHT

Loved and respected by all, her classmates feel that they have suffered a distinct loss.

Class Alphabet

- A stands for Arthur, a quiet young man;
Always working as hard as he can.
- B—stands for Beryl, not fickle but vain;
To be a trained nurse is her greatest aim.
- C—stands for courage, which we all possess;
Always striving to do our best.
- D—stand for Dorothy, always on time;
That's why her suitors stand three-deep in line.
- E stands for Ethel, Emma, Elizabeth too;
To our class have remained faithful and true.
- F—stands for finals, which we all abhor;
Soon we shall be able to quote "nevermore."
- G—stands for George, a boy in our class;
When examined for policeman we hope he will pass.
- H—stands for Harry, our class President;
On all of his lessons is very intent.

We always look for the things more devout.
- J—stands for joy, that we always display;
At school, at home, in work or in play.
- K—stands for knowledge, that's what we are noted for;
Forever striving and working for more.
- L—stands for Lena, an efficient "stenog;"
With her accurate work the world's set "agog."
- M—stands for Mary Havice and Mary Beale, too;
Always happy and jolly, these two of our crew.
- N stands for neatness, in all that we do;
Especially when working for our own White and Blue.
- O—stands for opportunity, which knocks only once;
Not to open, would make each a dunce.
- P—stands for Miss Peters, our faculty advisor;
Her untiring efforts, have made us much wiser.
- Q—stands for quality, which makes up our class;
A characteristic of each lad and lass.
- R—stands for Ruth, our temperamental musician
To be a trained nurse is her greatest ambition.
- S—stands for Ralph Shawver, of Basketball fame;
As a guard on our team, he plays quite a good game.
- T—stands for teachers, we love and respect;
When we leave Burnham High School we ne'er shall forget.
- U—stands for unity, as a class we have stood;
Trying to do always, that which is noble and good.
- V—stands for valor, we have strived to attain;
And win for ourselves, in the future a name.
- W—stands for work, that will make us much brighter;
Shorthand, bookkeeping, and at the typewriter.
- X stands for X-amples that we set for the Juniors;
We hope they'll be like us when they become Seniors.
- Y—stands for years we have spent here in school;
Obedient, and living by the Golden Rule.
- Z—stands for zero we have made as a mark;
We can say nothing more, for now we must part.

CLASS PROPHECY

THE FOLLOWING is a clipping from the BURNHAM METROPOLITAN DAILY of June 4, 1958:

"The prosperous town of Burnham lay garlanded and expectant beneath the June sunshine. Crowds of gaily dressed people gathered in the stadium of the spacious high school grounds. This stadium, by the way, has been the pride of not only the school, but the entire community, for it has been completed at the cost of thousands of dollars and has been the scene of many out-door gatherings. Its seats filled up rapidly with the hundreds who wanted to have part in the reunion of the class of 1928.

'A fine class,' asserted gray-haired old Mr. Pandel. 'As fine a class as the school ever sent out. I was a member of the Board of Education when they graduated, and we were certainly proud of them.'

'Are most of the members here?' asked his companion. 'I'm told they are expecting a large representation.

'A number are here,' replied Mr. Pandel. 'That's Arthur Yeager over there. He came in his airplane this morning. He certainly has a fine one, darts along the sky like a bird. You know he's the orator of the day. He is a corporation lawyer, spends most of his time in New York, though he has a fine home up the Hudson. They're expecting a large number of the old class to come in on the Limited. That will be in soon.

He spoke truly, for in a few minutes eager faces were watching the approach of the early afternoon Air-Line Limited, whose swift flight along the blue of the overhanging sky was accompanied with a whirring like the beating of many wings. The band began their exultant melody of welcome; handkerchiefs were waving and excited voices calling out greetings as the great passenger plane came to a stop. The members of the class of 1928 who were already present were instantly welcoming the new arrivals and presently the company turned toward the stadium. The stage was all set and ready for the reunion of the class who had graduated thirty years before.

The old time members gathered for the opening march. There were heads of graying locks—if the truth is to be told, there were heads beginning to lose their lock, but the old fire of life is kindled in eager eyes and a perennial youth glowed in their hearts. The band furnished the introduction of a lively march and the Class of 1928 of the Burnham High School took its place on the flower trimmed platform, with perhaps more dignity, but with the graceful ease of thirty years ago. As the large company looked upon these men and women who had returned with laurels for the old school they broke into deafening cheers of welcome, a welcome so hearty that those of the class who did blush with pride, blushed from sheer excitement.

The music changed to the strains of "America" and the assembled members began the song written for the occasion by Ruth Bay, who had been given to the writing of verse in high school days.

Dear old school, 'tis to thee,
Long from thy tasks set free,
We now return;
From distant town and state,
We come to celebrate,
And old-time joys relate
As love's fires burn.

THE LAND

They started out bravely, but even the voices of Beryl, Elizabeth and Dorothy who had been noted singers of the class in the old days, grew trembly, and Ralph Shawver, who had been notorious as a cut-up, was seen to blow his nose with a great gusto and then furtively wipe his eyes.

As the song closed, Harry Pully, who had gained much poise from presiding at class meetings, stepped forward and said:

'Ladies and gentlemen, I have the great honor to introduce as the speaker of the day, Arthur Yeager, who has left his work in the busy New York Law Office to be with us at this gathering. We are proud of Arthur; he has gained wealth and distinction; he has also gained a five-foot waist line and an accumulation of averdupois in keeping with his dignity. He flew over here in his private plane; his next flight will be to oratory that will hold you spell-bound.

When the cheering has ceased, Arthur came forward with his old-time assurance multiplied several degrees and began:

'Ladies and gentlemen, schoolmates of the good old days, and friends of the by-gone years: I see before me many faces that are new, but I also behold many that were present at the graduation of this class thirty years ago. To you who saw us go forth for that day, I can only say, hearing the trophies of former effort, I would say that we have returned not with our swords but bearing them laden with honors for the best school a class ever left, Burnham High. Now I wish to present members of the class of 1928 who are before you, and give you a few facts concerning them. I will start with Ethel Cripe: In high school she used to advocate better order in the assembly room; she wanted the girls kept clean and the school ground kept clean; she thought the girls should hold half the school offices, so it is not surprising that Ethel went in for civic reform. She reformed her town, tackled the county, and then the state. Now she is in Washington telling things to Congress. A good many folks have heard from her, and more are going to.

Then here's George Nearhoof. He has prosperity written all over him; it says he has money not only in his pockets but in the bank. Yes, George is a plumber and can retire any time he wants to.

Elizabeth Graham, as you know, is principal of your school at this time and Mary Beane, who has refused many offers of marriage, has returned to teaching, has charge of the English department. They both wanted to teach in this school in order that they might be revenged on future classes for the roastings the faculty gave them during their high school years.

Here, also, are Emma Weiser, who has won much notice as a Chautauqua speaker, and Beryl North, who is a famous cartoonist for leading city dailies.

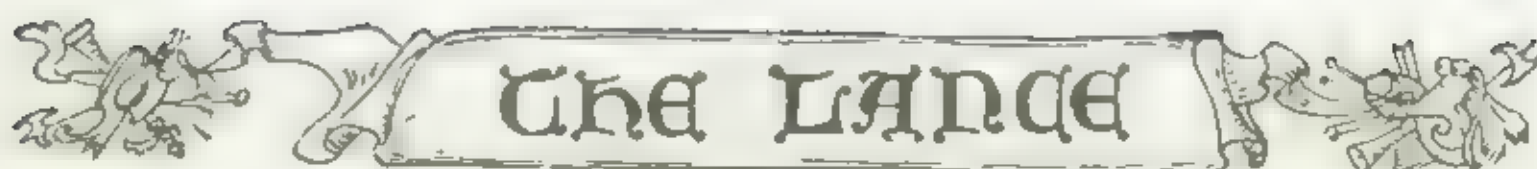

Dorothy Walker is a worthy doctor. She is an allopath, and while it's said that all paths lead to the grave, I want to tell you Dot doesn't lead patients there very often.

Ralph Shawver is a railway director; he is a noted inventor; he got out a car that is better and cheaper than a Ford and he's doing fine.

Mary Havice is the thief of the class; she stole an office from her opponent; she stole a march on the voters and got into the Legislature; now she's in Congress and there is no telling what she's getting.

Thus spoke the orator in the midst of the plaudits of the concourse of people. The rest of the day was spent in the usual handshaking and recitals of the memories of the days gone by. The close of the day marked the end of this gala and happy event."

SYNOPSIS

ACT I. The gay little tea room makes its bow to no customers. A desirable hired car has been sent by a mysterious party and, all of a sudden, comes the thrilling message, "Tess has the smallpox."

ACT II. Quicker than lightning comes the news that Tess is not only a victim of the disease but also a social disgrace. The fate of the little tea room is now in the hands of the police, and the story leads to a climax.

ACT III. The gaiety of a fancy dress ball brings defeat to Gloria, real social service to Ann and her friends. The story leads to a final scene in which the characters are reunited and the message is, "Tess has the chickenpox!"

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

There were fifty-two members in this class when they entered Burnham High School as Freshmen. During their Freshman year they had one social event, a wiener roast.

They were well represented on the basketball and track teams.

A few weeks after the opening of school this term, they held their first class meeting under the supervision of Mr. Kennedy, their faculty advisor, to organize their class. This year the class has been reduced to twenty-two members. They have had one social event, a class party, held in the high school building.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1927, sixty-one Freshmen entered Burnham High School. It was the largest class that ever entered the school.

A few weeks after the opening of school, the class held its first meeting under its class advisors, Miss Howe and Miss Decker, for the purpose of organizing.

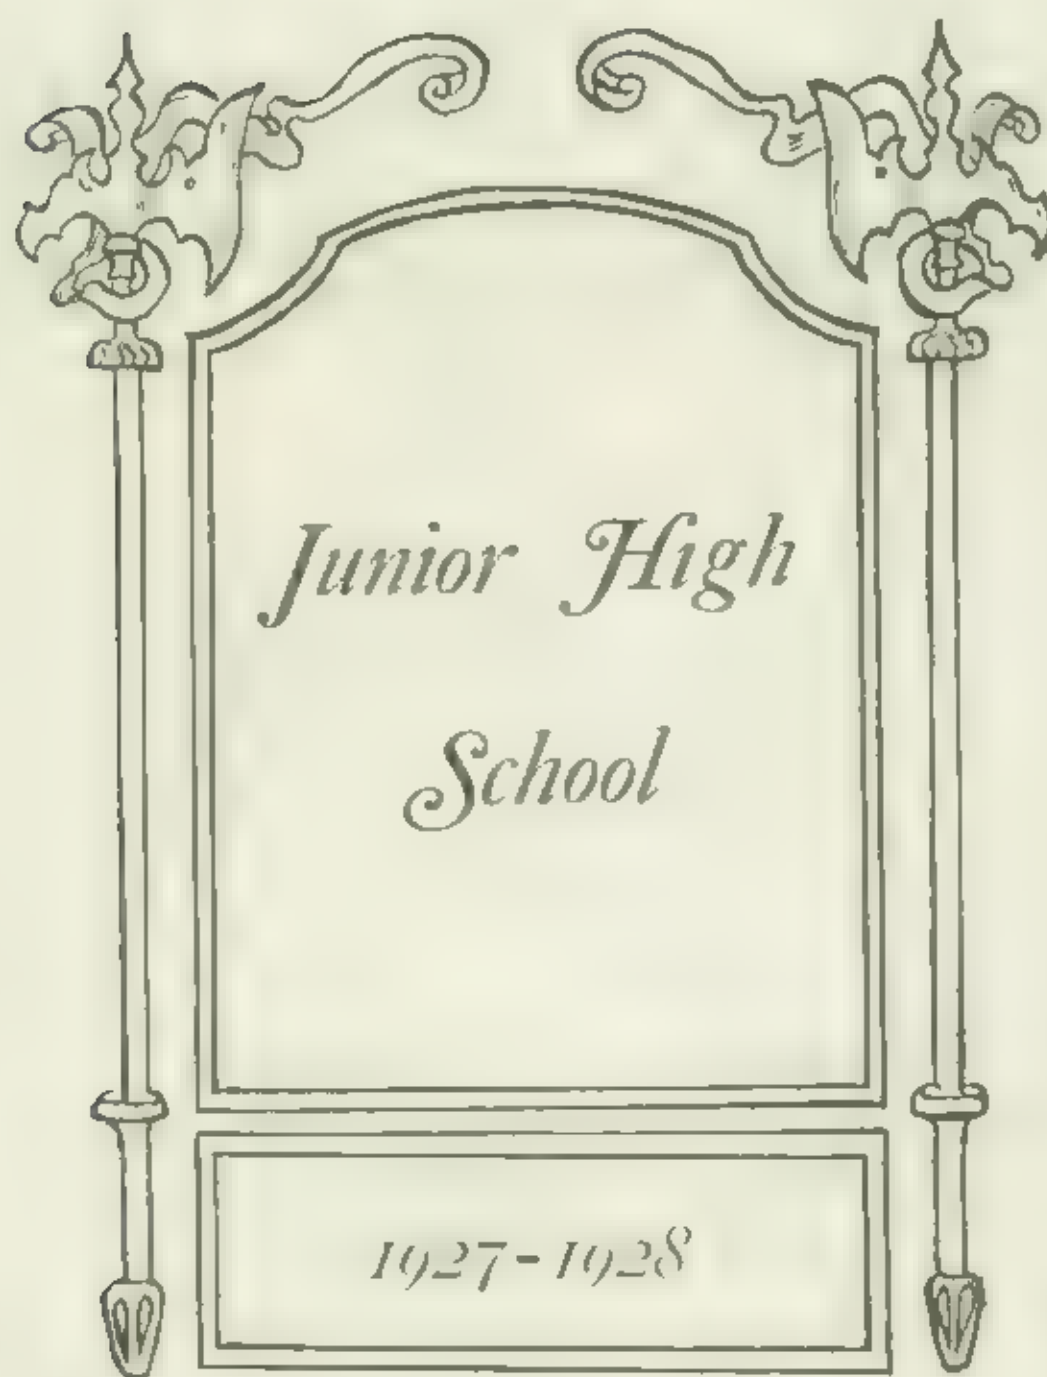

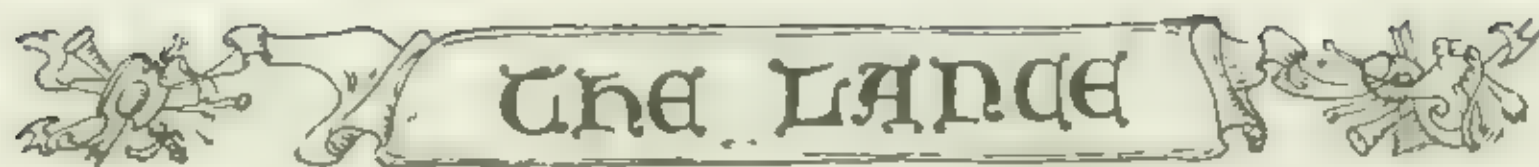

Thus far the "Freshies" have had only one social event, held in the high school building the second week in January.

In basketball they have a large number of representatives and they promise to give the upper classes a merry chase when it comes to class basketball.

If the Freshmen continue throughout their high-school career the spirit they have shown thus far, they will give the upper classmen plenty of competition when they are no longer Freshmen, but Sophomores.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Faculty — John F. Smith, Ada White, Anne Kyle

The swiftly evolving year has again brought around the time when it becomes necessary for us to dissolve the bonds which connect our class with our teachers and school. Therefore, it behooves us to state some of the outstanding accomplishments of the year which have been exceptionally profitable and enjoyable.

A few weeks after the opening of school the different sections elected officers for their literary societies. Monthly programs were arranged for, all of which were both entertaining and instructive.

Very often on Friday mornings, the Junior High met in joint session for devotional exercises.

Junior High can boast of holding the "Honor Banners" in the Parent-Teacher Association for months of the school year. This shows the spirit of the teachers and the pupils.

Possibly the most successful home talent play that was ever given in Burnham, was presented on the night of March 6, 1928, when "Bits of Blarney" was given by the pupils of Junior High.

It is with great pride that we mention our Girls Glee Club, which will make the Senior High step lively to keep pace with this group of singers.

ALMA MATER

Now has come the time for parting
We must leave our dear old High,
And our hearts are sad and heavy
As to friends we say "goodbye."

Classmates, teacher, Alma Mater,
We must bid you now adieu;
We have finished our courses
And our four years work is through.

Years of toiling, but rejoicing,
That our work was not in vain,
We shall use our knowledge wisely,
As we travel o'er the main.

Trav'ling onward, working bravely,
Over paths both hard and steep,
Working ever, shirking never,
To the goal for which we seek.

When at last we reach the summit
And we halt to breathe a sigh,
Then in memory we'll recall
Days we spent in Burnham High.

Memories that we aye will treasure
And hold with fondness to each heart;
For we love our Alma Mater
And from her we have to part.

JUNIOR VARSITY 1927-1928

The Junior Varsity of B. H. S. also had a winning team. This team won 33 out of 41 games. They faced odds of playing larger and older players in most of their games. They will probably constitute most of the varsity team next year.

SCHOOL EXTRAS

THE ELSON EDUCATIONAL ART EXHIBIT

The Elson Educational Art Exhibit consisting of two hundred large reproductions of masterpieces of architecture, sculpture, and painting was held in the Freedom School Building, January 28 and 29. The funds raised were used to buy pictures for the school room. Some of the pictures were portrayed by pupils of the school. The backgrounds were sketched by Miss Van-Zant, teacher of the Second Grade. The paintings portrayed by high school pupils were

"Pot of Basil"	Emma Weiser
"Song of the Lark"	Margaret Wolfgang
"At Supper"	Ethel Cripe
"Sunset"	Marguerite Snook
"The Artist's Mother"	Elizabeth Yost

NEAR EAST RELIEF

The week of January 9-13 was set apart as Golden Rule Week in the schools of Mifflin County. Envelopes for contributions to the work of the Near East Relief were distributed in our schools. A check for $44.03 was sent to headquarters. This was our share in the great work.

HIGH SCHOOL PICNICS

For a number of years it has been the custom of the high school to set aside one day for the annual outing. The majority of the pupils take advantage of the opportunity to spend a day on the picnic grounds. Entertainment is not hard to find at these events when everyone is out to have a good time.

MAGAZINE CAMPAIGNS

The Athletic Association conducted two magazine campaigns during this term of school. In the first campaign subscriptions to any magazine could be taken. A prize was given to each person who secured three or more subscriptions.

Later in the year Mr. Sterling, a representative from the Curtis Publishing Co., gave a lesson in salesmanship and launched the second campaign. The school was divided into two teams, the Bear Cats and the Wild Cats. Only subscriptions to the Curtis and Crowell publications were taken at this time. The proceeds from the two campaigns were applied to the funds of the Athletic Association.

EDUCATIONAL TRIPS

In our Junior year the Juniors and Seniors visited the Bell Telephone Exchange.

Soon after the opening of the Embassy Theatre in our Senior year, our high school and the other high schools in the county, were the guests of the Viscose Company at a special showing of the picture "The Romance of Rayon."

In March the Seniors and Juniors motored to Huntingdon and were conducted through the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory. It was a very interesting trip.

Toward the close of the term the Senior Class went to Harrisburg to visit the State Capitol, Library, Museum, and other places of interest in the city.

HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Music in Our Schools

The high school orchestra under the leadership of Miss Elma Benfer, did splendid work this year. Several new members were added. The orchestra played for the "Burnham Follies" held in the Y. M. C. A. in September, both days of the Elson Art Exhibit, for Miss Smith's Christmas Carol service, and for both Parent-Teacher Associations.

Music has always had a place in our school. Twice a week we had Chorus practice under the leadership of the music supervisor, Miss Arla C. Smith. The school was so large this year that it was necessary to divide it into two sections, the freshmen using one period, the three upper classes together, the other period.

LITERARY ACTIVITIES

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The Athenaeum and Lyceum Literary Societies were re-organized this year. Robert Harpster and Ethel Cripe were elected president and Secretary of Athenaeum Society. Ruth Bay and Margaret Wolfgang of the Lyceum. The first program was a Thanksgiving Program given by the Athenaeum Society. The Lyceum gave a splendid Christmas program before the Holidays. The two societies combined to give a program for Washington's Birthday. A pageant entitled "Our United States" was given by the pupils.

Among the most important characters were: Uncle Sam, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Patrick Henry and Betsy Ross. Various programs were given throughout the year. They were often enjoyed by visitors in the school.

We had several outside speakers and entertainers visit our school this year. These include Prof. J. W. Yoder, Miss Alma Benfer, Mr. Sechrist, Rev. Carl Simon and Mr. C. R. Beckley.

HIGH SCHOOL PAPERS

The first paper of any kind published by Burnham High School was the "News Letter". It was a one-page bulletin published by Mr. Sipe and the four Senior Commercial girls on November 3, 1927. A special two-page Armistice number, "Blue and White," was next put out by the Junior Class. The Seniors followed with a very clever and worth-while six-page edition of "The B" for Thanksgiving. Two more editions of "The B" followed at intervals of two weeks. Then a regular and permanent staff was elected from the High School, and the first edition of "The Beehive" appeared February 10, 1928.

These papers were all printed on the mimeograph machine that was presented to the High School by the Class of 1927.

THE LAND

WHAT IS THE BEEHIVE?

"The Beehive" is the name of our high school paper. This name was selected because of its significance. A beehive is a place where work is done. Go to it when you will and you will see signs of industry. The Beehive was published every two weeks by a staff elected from the four high school classes. Outside the school, a number of alumni and friends subscribed to the paper and received their copies regularly through the mail.

Le Cercle Francais is the name of a club that was organized in October by the pupils who were studying French. There were fifty-four members in the club. This was the first year for an organization of this kind. Several times during the year the club showed lantern slides of France and Joan of Arc. The social event of the year was a party held in the school building. The evening was spent in playing games in French.

WIT AND HUMOR

---

We editors may think and dig
Until our finger tips are sore;
But some poor boob is sure to say
"Ah, I've heard that joke before."

So, if you meet some ancient joke
Decked out in modern guise;
Don't call the thing a fake;
Just grin, don't be too wise.

---

When you procure some H-2-S
And other stuff as bad or less,
And mix a frightful smelling mess,
That's preparation.

And when you take the tube of stuff
And pour it thru some paper rough,
And half of it goes down your cuff,
That's filtration.

And when you dump some acid in
And shake it up and boil it thin,
And stir it for awhile, like sin,
That's separation.

But when you've worked both hard and long.
Make your table with courage strong,
Then teacher tells you it's all wrong.
That's "Thunderation."

---

"It's all up with me," said the umbrella.
"How sew?" said the needle.
"It was this weigh," said the scales.
"Shut up!" retorted the clam.
"Knit," said the yarn.
"Cut it," said the knife.
"Take that!" said the pill.

GROWING SMILES

A smile is quite a funny thing,
It wrinkles up your face,
And when its gone you never find
Its secret hiding place.

But far more wonderful it is
To see what smiles can do.
You smile at one, he smiles at you,
And so one smile makes two.

He smiles at someone, since you smiled,
And that one smiles back,
And that one smiles, until in truth
You keep in smiling track.

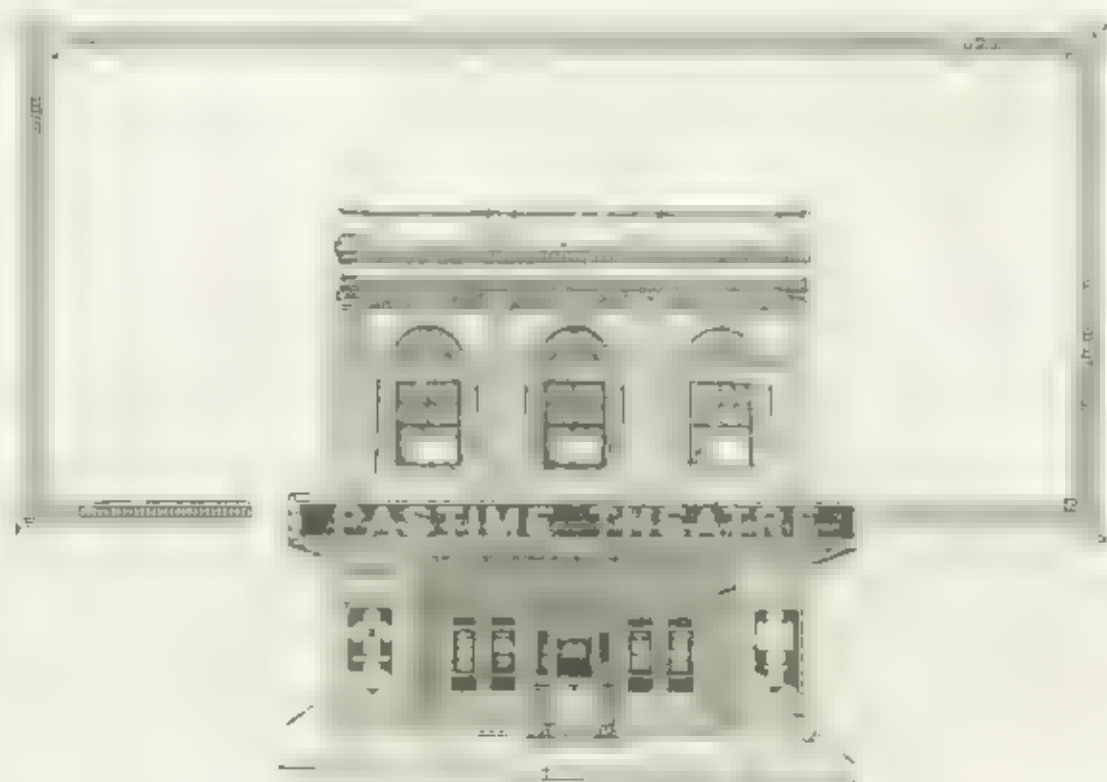

And since a smile can do great good,
By cheering hearts of care,
Let's smile and smile and not forget,
That smiles go everywhere.

Slight Occupations

Washing the mouth of a tunnel.
Falling into a peach pit.
Cooking on a mountain range.
Hanging clothes on a bee line.
Smoking a water pipe.
Drawing your breath.
Sewing buttons on a coat of paint.
Blowing Cape Horn.
Drinking out of an ink well.
Pulling teeth from a saw.

Mr. Meant-To has a comrade;
And his name is Didn't-Do;
Have you ever chanced to meet them?
Did they ever call on you?

These two fellows live together
In the house of Never-Win,
And I'm told that it is haunted
By the ghost of Might-Have-Been.

THE INDUSTRIAL YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION is the only place in our town where the Boys and Girls can go to develop their growing bodies, which need all the exercise they can get.

We have the equipment and the facilities to take care of the large as well as the small and the old as well as the young, so they can enjoy life and at the same time get the much needed exercise to build up a strong, healthy body, in the Gymnasium, the Swimming pool or in the Tennis Courts. RECREATION means so much to our school children. Parents don't realize what the "Y" is doing for the children in our community, the persons who will run the town when we are gone.

A man in the hospital for the insane, sat dangling a stick with a piece of string attached over a flower pot. A visitor approached and wishing to be affable, remarked:

"How many have you caught?"

"You're the ninth," was the reply.

"When do the leaves begin to turn?"

"The day before examinations."

The radio announcer was transmitting a play-by-play account of the World series game. At an exciting moment he yelled out:

"He swang at it!"

Seventeen sets in Boston burnt out.
